Hi Xavier,

You certainly have my permission to translate as you need. I learned about this lesson at first from James Bush at Waynesburg College - the idea is not my brainchild.

Enjoy,
Bob Lochel

Hi,

I'm Xavier Bordoy, a secondary teacher of Mathematics from Spain. I teach math in adults school. I discovered your activity of probability [<https://mathcoachblog.com/2015/09/20/an-egg-cellent-simulation/>] and I want to translate in Catalan and share in web among my colleagues [via <https://candoc.cc/> that is my teaching cabinet in Catalan].

But I see your page has a classic copyrighted (copyright sign) and not any Creative Commons license. So I ask permission to you to translate your activity in Catalan.

Thanks in advance,
Xavier
